4. WARRANTIES AND LIMITATION OF D&D'S LIABILITY

- 4.1 D&D provides warranties and accepts liability only to the extent set out in these Terms of Use and, in relation to specific Products, as set out on the Site in respect of that Product.
- 4.2 Except as provided by law, D&D will be liable for direct losses only to the Client to the extent stated in Section 5 of the Master Terms.
- 4.3 Nothing in these Terms of Use excludes or limits either party's responsibility for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence.
- 4.4 D&D will only be liable to the Client for accidental loss or damage caused by its own gross negligence or wilful default.
- 4.5 D&D UK shall maintain professional indemnity insurance in respect of its liability under these Terms of Use. Any claim resulting only from the sole negligence of D&D UK, D&D UK's aggregate liability in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or otherwise arising in any way in relation to the Services (except in relation to death or personal injury) will not exceed an aggregate amount of ten million pounds (£10,000,000), where the liability relates to the Retail or Flood Appraisal Product(s) the aggregate limit will not exceed one million pounds (£1,000,000).
- 4.6 D&D will not be liable to the Client if the Services are used other than as provided or referred to in these Terms of Use and the 'Notes and Guidance' section of all Products or Services. For the avoidance of doubt the Retail Product(s) is provided for use solely for continued-use commercial Property Site(s) comprising a single commercial Property Site with an area of less than 0.25 hectares where the principle activity is the sale or display of goods or services (from the premises) to walk-in members of the general public, with the exclusion of garages, petrol stations and retail stores associated with petrol stations. D&D residential Product(s) are provided solely for continued-use residential Property Site(s) comprising a single residential dwelling or House of Multiple Occupation (HMO).
- 4.7 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) You will not in any way hold D&D responsible for its selection or retention of the Suppliers, or any delay, failure, acts or omissions of supply of the Third Party Content or services from other Suppliers (including those with whom D&D may have contracted from time to time to provide parts of the Services);
 - (b) D&D does not promise that the supply of the Services will be uninterrupted or free from error or provide any particular facilities or functions, or that the Content will always be complete, accurate, precise or free from defects of any kind or from computer viruses, computer locks or other similar computer-related problems but D&D undertakes to use reasonable efforts to correct any such errors, inaccuracies or defects within a reasonable period of being made aware of them;
 - (c) D&D will not be liable for any interruption, delay or failure in the provision of the Services caused or contributed to by any circumstance outside the reasonable control of D&D (including, but not limited to, failure of power supply, computer malfunction, inaccurate processing of data by third parties, delays in coding, loading, processing, checking or dispatching of data, corruption of data while in course of conversion, failure or overloading of printing or telecommunications or electronic communications);

- (d) in providing search reports D&D will comply with the Search Code as developed by the Council for Property Search Organisations (CoPSO) and enforced by the Property Codes Compliance Board (PCCB). D&D's only obligation is to exercise the reasonable skill and care of a business-to-business company supplying information to persons acting in a professional or commercial capacity and You acknowledge that You are such a person;
- (e) only the Client, any person providing funding to the Client in relation to the Property Site (whether directly or as part of a lending syndicate), the Client's purchaser or tenant of the Property Site and any professional advisors of the Client are entitled to rely on the Services;
- (f) before placing an Order You will carefully check that the details that You provide in relation to Your Order are complete, accurate and correct and that the Services are being procured for the correct location and property type, and take any other advice prudently required before making any decision in relation to the Property Site to which the Services may relate and You will not rely exclusively on the Services in Your dealing with the Property Site or in relation to valuation of it;
- (g) the Services have not been prepared so as to meet Your or anyone else's particular requirements and You assume the entire risk as to their suitability and waive any claim of detrimental reliance upon them and You are solely responsible for selection or omission of any part of the relevant Content;
- (h) it is Your obligation to ensure that You, or anyone You are acting on behalf of, are aware of all the terms of any warranty which is provided as part of an D&D Service on Your instructions before You place an Order for that Service;
- (i) the information forming the Content has been extracted from a wide range of third party sources compiled for many different purposes and to different standards and is not controlled or maintained by D&D and that, accordingly, while D&D may identify and will endeavour to correct errors brought to D&D's attention, such Third Party Content cannot be warranted to be free of error and some errors and omissions may remain. Other than errors introduced as a result of D&D's own processing D&D and its Suppliers do not accept any responsibility and expressly disclaim all liability for any errors, omissions or misstatements in such Third Party Content and for any loss or damage suffered by You or any other person acting or refraining from acting as a result of, or in reliance on, any Third Party Content. Specific to Third Party Content in the form of planning application records the following considerations are applicable
 - (i) Planning records are affected by standards of collection, the method and timeliness of recording employed by each local planning authority and the form in which the authority makes planning application data available.
 - (ii) Since available planning application data is predominantly geographically located using a single point, not the actual application site boundary, the location reported in the Third Party Content will control whether a record appears as Content within a report.
 - (iii) Data such as those relating to applications for the discharge of planning conditions, reserved matters applications and planning application amendments have been excluded to avoid numerous duplication of reference to the same application.
 - (iv) Planning applications which are identified as having been refused may have been subsequently granted upon appeal and may not appear as Content.
 - (v) Certain aspects of the available data will not appear as Content as they are considered erroneous to its purpose such as planning applications relating to advertisements;
- (j) given the wide range of data which could potentially be included in the Content, D&D does not claim or warrant that either the Content or Services is comprehensive with respect to or sufficient for any specific purpose;
- (k) D&D offers no warranty for the performance of any linked internet service not operated by D&D;
- (l) without prejudice to any other restriction set out in these Terms of Use, if in the course of Your business or otherwise You use for the benefit of or convey to any third party any element of the Services, You will make such third party aware of the limitations, obligations and acknowledgments set out in these Terms of Use;
- (m) You will observe and comply with all applicable laws and regulations;
- (n) both You and D&D shall pay due regard to, and co-operate in respect of the observance of any applicable financial crime and international economic, financial or trade sanctions laws and regulations which bind You or D&D;
- (o) neither party shall take any action which facilitates the evasion of taxes anywhere in the world or which is contrary to any related financial crime laws and regulations (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Criminal Finances Act 2017);

- (p) neither party shall be involved in the offering, promising or giving of any financial or other advantage to any person in breach of any laws and regulations against bribery (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Bribery Act 2010);
 - (q) the parties shall insofar as required to do so, and whether or not any party is an associated person of another for the purposes of the Bribery Act 2010, the Criminal Finances Act 2017 or any other relevant laws and regulations, maintain on an ongoing basis appropriate systems, procedures and controls designed to prevent any breach of paragraphs 6.7.14 to 6.7.16 above;
 - (r) You shall not hold Yourself out or describe Yourself as D&D's agent or an agent of the Reseller or of any of the Suppliers.
 - (s) You will carry out an inspection of the Product or Service to satisfy Yourself that the Property Site boundary, address and description are free from errors, and where any such errors are identified You will promptly inform D&D. D&D will not be liable to the Client where the Product(s) or Service(s) is relied upon for land which is of a greater extent than the Property Site.
 - (t)
- 4.8 If D&D instructs any additional service for You obtained from a third party or derived from information provided by a third party (including, but not limited to, any professional opinion or search carried out in relation to the Property Site) D&D will not be liable to You in any way for any issue arising out of such additional service. D&D will be deemed to act solely as Your agent in these circumstances and will be entitled to disclose Your identity, and supply of such additional services will then be governed by the terms and conditions of any such third party.
- 4.9 Neither You, nor a Client nor any other person may rely on the Services more than 12 months after they were originally provided.
- 4.10 No physical inspection of the Property Site is carried out as part of any Services offered by D&D (unless previously agreed in writing) and D&D does not warrant that all land uses or features whether past or current will be identified in the Services. The Services do not include any information relating to the actual state or condition of any Property Site nor should they be used or taken to indicate or exclude actual fitness or unfitness of a Property Site for any particular purpose nor should it be relied upon for determining saleability or value or used as a substitute for any physical investigation or inspection.
- 4.11 D&D will not be liable to the Client or those beneficiaries who are entitled to rely on the Services as set out in Section 4.7(e) in respect of any loss occurring in the period after the Client or those beneficiaries cease to either retain an interest in the Property Site or remain liable for the Property Site.

5. REMEDIATION WARRANTY

- 5.1 Subject to the terms detailed each Protected Product issued benefits from our Remediation Warranty for a period of up to 6 years from the date of purchase of the Protected Product providing up to a maximum of £100,000 in respect of the cost of the works necessary to be carried out at the Property Site under a Remediation Notice.  - (l) any losses incurred following a material change in use of alteration or development of the Property Site;
 - (m) any subsequent Protected Product or other Products purchased by or on behalf of the first purchaser or the first purchaser's lender or any person connected to them in respect of the same Property Site.
- 5.4 The Remediation Warranty is not assignable in the event of a sale of the Property Site by the first purchaser or the first purchaser's lender and ceases on the date of completion of such sale.
- 5.5 Under the terms of the Remediation Warranty claims must be notified to D&D in writing within 3 months of the date of the Remediation Notice. The Claimant shall comply with all D&D's reasonable requirements with regard to the works to be carried out under the Remediation Notice, and in the event that any Claimant does not do so, including obtaining D&D's prior written consent to any estimates for such works and complying with any other reasonable request by D&D, the Remediation Warranty will be invalidated.
- 5.6 The Claimant shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate any costs incurred in connection with the conduct of the works required in respect of the Remediation Notice.

The specific losses covered are:
- (a) The loss in fair market value of the Property Site as determined by an independent surveyor arranged or appointed by D&D and/or its advisors; and
